

CHURCH CARDS IN SALOON WINDOWS

A Toper Invites the Preacher Who Entered to Take a Drink.

MONEY FOR MEMORIAL SCHOOL

The Norfolk School Board Authorizes Collection in Schools of That City.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 9.—Something new was seen in Norfolk to-day. Cards announcing evangelistic services at the First Baptist Church, are in the windows of several saloons of the city. The Rev. Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell, pastor of the First Baptist Church placed them there, and he had some interesting experiences in doing it. On the card is a picture representing Christ saying, "Come Unto Me." The clergyman was placing them around prominently in downtown windows. At the first saloon he visited, the proprietor said:

"You have brought that card to a poor place to be of any use to you." "This is just the place to put it. While you are inviting the people one way, I will invite them another."

"All right," said the saloon-keeper, "you are perfectly welcome to put it in my window, if you wish."

In a prominent saloon, on Main Street, Dr. Blackwell was kindly received by the proprietor. He was told that he might place his cards in the windows or any where else in the saloon he may wish; a toper in that place, not recognizing the gentleman of the cloth, invited him to "have a drink." The bar-tender relieved the situation by informing his customer as to whom he was talking.

The toper was most profound in his apologies.

A dispatch from Elizabeth City, N. C., says that the Republicans will probably nominate John Q. A. Wood, of Elizabeth City, to make the race for Congress in opposition to Representative John H. Small, should they make a nomination. L. M. Jenkins, postmaster of Elizabeth City, is given as authority for the statement. It was first reported that Mr. Jenkins himself would oppose Mr. Small, but the postmaster says that is incorrect, and that he would not accept a congressional nomination, even should it be offered him.

Mr. Wood is a buggy manufacturer and industrial citizen of Elizabeth City, and it is thought he would accept the nomination.

The Norfolk school board has authorized the collection of money in the schools of the city, to be applied to a fund for the establishment of a memorial school in San Francisco. The pupils of the High School are expected to give ten cents each to the fund, and those of the grammar schools, five cents.

Rev. J. A. Speight, D. D., of North Carolina, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Northwest Baptist Church, Northwest, Norfolk county, since it already entered upon the duties of the church. The pastor is a brother of J. R. Sleight, M. D., of Norfolk city.

FIRE IN CAROLINE.

Farmers' Club Give Elegant Dinner at Port Royal.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 9.—A tenant's house on the "Nottingham" farm, in Caroline county, near this city, belonging to Dr. C. B. Morton, and occupied by Mr. Charles Curtis, was destroyed by fire Tuesday. Mr. Curtis lost all of his furniture. The insurance on the building was only $400.

A meeting of the Farmers' Club at Port Royal, Caroline county, Monday, Mr. J. P. Jackson, editor of the Southern Planter, of Richmond, addressed the meeting. An elegant dinner was served. W. S. Embrey, of this city, has purchased Messrs. Gaston and Swearingner the well known "Green Bank" farm on the Rappahannock River, a few miles above this city, in Stafford county. The farm contains about 1,000 acres, and has on it a large quantity of valuable timber.

Mr. Calvin Butner, who has been the mail carrier on rural route No. 1, from this city to Spotsylvania county, since it was first established, has tendered his resignation to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed.

Mr. Isaac Hersh has gone to Philadelphia to attend the session of the National Convention of the American Correction, as a delegate.

Rev. R. A. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church, and Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, both of this city, have gone to Chattanooga, to attend the Southern Baptist Association.

CLEVER AMATEURS.

Teachers' Institute to Consider Graded School for the Country.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WAYNESBURG, VA., May 9.—An intelligent and appreciative audience of over three hundred people assembled in the City Hall last night to hear the best play of the season, when "Among the Breakers," a comedy-tragedy, in two acts, was presented by some of Waynesburg's best dramatic talent, under the direction of Mrs. J. P. West.

David Murray—Light-house keeper—J. W. Presson.

Livvy Devine—His assistant—J. J. Barrett.

Hon. Bruce Hunter—Wealthy gentleman—Dr. L. O. Vaughan.

Clarence Hunter—His ward—E. N. Burt.

Peter Paragraph—A newspaper reporter—E. A. Thompson.

Son—Hunter's colored servant—J. P. West, Jr.

Minnie Daze—Hunter's niece—Miss Lizzie Fleetwood.

Bess Starbright—Cast up by the waves—Miss Sallye J. Burt.

Mother Carey—A reputed fortune teller.

Read-Admiral Harrington Makes the Unveiling Address.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 9.—A monument, a simple pedestal, surmounted by a griffin, was erected by the Fort Nelson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and marking the site of Old Fort Nelson, one of the principal defenses of Norfolk harbor during the Revolution, was fittingly unveiled at 6 o'clock this afternoon on the one hundred and twenty-seventh anniversary of the first attack on the fort by the British forces.

The fort was located in what is now the naval hospital reservation. A large crowd, including more than 1,000 school children of Portsmouth, was present for the exercises.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

RUNNING SORES COVERED LIMBS

Little Girl's Obstinate Case of Eczema—Instantaneous Relief By Cuticura—Little Boy's Hands and Arms Also Were a Mass of Torturing Sores—Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES A HOUSEHOLD STANDBY"

"In reply to your letter I write you my experience, and you are privileged to use it as you see fit. Last year, after having my little girl treated by a prominent physician for an obstinate case of eczema, I resorted to the Cuticura Remedies, and was so well pleased with the almost instantaneous relief afforded that we discarded the physician's prescription and relied entirely on the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. When we commenced with the Cuticura Remedies her feet and limbs were covered with running sores. In about six weeks we had her completely well, and there has been no recurrence of the trouble."

"In July of this year a little boy in our family poisoned his hands and arms with poison oak, and in twenty-four hours his hands and arms were a mass of torturing sores. We used only the Cuticura Remedies, washing his hands and arms with the Cuticura Soap, and anointed them with the Cuticura Ointment, and then gave him the Cuticura Pills. In about three weeks his hands and arms healed up; so we have lots of cause for feeling grateful for the Cuticura Remedies. We find that the Cuticura Remedies are a valuable household standby, living as we do twelve miles from a doctor, and where it costs from twenty to twenty-five dollars to come up on the mountain. Respectfully, Mrs. Lizzie Vincent Thomas, Fairmont, Walden's Ridge, Tenn., Oct. 10, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Itchiness to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 32c; Cuticura Ointment, 32c; Cuticura Pills, 32c; par value of 80c, may be had of all druggists. A single box often cures the most obstinate cases of skin disease. Cuticura is a household remedy for all skin diseases. Cuticura is a household remedy for all skin diseases. Cuticura is a household remedy for all skin diseases.

Mr. Wood is a buggy manufacturer and industrial citizen of Elizabeth City, and it is thought he would accept the nomination.

The Norfolk school board has authorized the collection of money in the schools of the city, to be applied to a fund for the establishment of a memorial school in San Francisco. The pupils of the High School are expected to give ten cents each to the fund, and those of the grammar schools, five cents.

Rev. J. A. Speight, D. D., of North Carolina, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Northwest Baptist Church, Northwest, Norfolk county, since it already entered upon the duties of the church. The pastor is a brother of J. R. Sleight, M. D., of Norfolk city.

Mr. Isaac Hersh has gone to Philadelphia to attend the session of the National Convention of the American Correction, as a delegate.

Rev. R. A. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church, and Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, both of this city, have gone to Chattanooga, to attend the Southern Baptist Association.

Read-Admiral Harrington Makes the Unveiling Address.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 9.—A monument, a simple pedestal, surmounted by a griffin, was erected by the Fort Nelson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and marking the site of Old Fort Nelson, one of the principal defenses of Norfolk harbor during the Revolution, was fittingly unveiled at 6 o'clock this afternoon on the one hundred and twenty-seventh anniversary of the first attack on the fort by the British forces.

The fort was located in what is now the naval hospital reservation. A large crowd, including more than 1,000 school children of Portsmouth, was present for the exercises.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

Read-Admiral P. F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, was the orator of the occasion. The school children sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and the naval post band made the music.

LITTLE ELSIE NORRIS FEARFULLY BURNED

Effort to Aid Her Mother Nearly Cost Her Life.

FRANKLIN, SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY, VA., May 9.—Little Elsie Virginia Norris, four years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Norris, of this place, was probably fatally burned to-day about 1 o'clock.

The little girl heard its mother say she was going to make a fire upstairs, and thinking she would help her mother prepare her quarters to make the fire. Only a few minutes after she had gone upstairs, Mrs. Norris went up and found the little girl in flames from head to foot.

The doctors who attended the child, say that recovery is improbable, as considerable amount of the surface of her body was covered by the flames. She stood in remarkable well, and was conscious while the bandages were being put on. If she lives she will probably be disfigured about the face and arms for life. At this time she is resting as well as could be expected under the influence of opiates. She is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Norris.

CHESTER CHIT-CHAT.

Citizens Will Hold Mass-Meeting to Secure High School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTER, VA., May 9.—The public school here will close its session to-morrow, and the "commencement exercises" of the school will be had at the Masonic Temple, Friday night, the 11th inst., at 8 o'clock. Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, of the State Board, will be present and deliver an address, and Rev. Mr. Taylor, C. N. Friend and Mr. Eggleston will deliver the medals. Superintendent Blankenship, P. V. Coghill and Mr. Taylor will be the judges of the best oration, and medals will also be given on scholarship. Mrs. A. J. Hurt, the principal, has conducted a fine school here the past season, and the commencement exercises prepared by her will be an exponent of the good work she has accomplished. In spite of the embarrassments and difficulties she has had to contend with by the hindrances occasioned by the prevalence of small-pox, whooping-cough and mumps in the community during the school session.

A meeting of the citizens of this community will be held at the public school house here on Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock, to discuss and formulate plans to secure the establishment of a county high school at this place, which project will engage the county school board at the courthouse on the 15th inst., when Superintendent Eggleston will explain and seek to get the officials of Chesterfield to establish somewhere in the county. It is generally conceded by the leading citizens of the county that if established, Chester is the most eligible point. The citizens of this place will do what they can to help on the enterprise.

WEDDED AT PELHAM.

Dr. Lee and Miss Ethel Wood Seek Gretna Green in a Buggy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., May 9.—Miss Ethel Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood, was married to-day to Dr. W. H. Lee, a well known local physician. The ceremony took place at Pelham, the famous Gretna Green of this section. The contracting parties left here early in the morning alone in a buggy, and were quietly married. Dr. and Mrs. Lee will make their future home in this city.

IN EXTREMIS.

Gen. Wharton's Son Racing Across Continent to Dying Father.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EAST RADFORD, VA., May 9.—General G. C. Wharton, who has been critically ill with heart trouble for several weeks, is thought to be slowly sinking. His son, Captain W. R. Wharton, is crossing the continent to reach his bedside.

The Clyde Floated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., May 9.—Advices received here to-night, from the States Weather Bureau, state that a big British steel sailing ship Clyde, ashore at Chincoteague, fifteen miles north of Cape Hatteras, since March 8th was floated this afternoon by the Merritt and Chapman Wrecking Company, and is now being towed to Norfolk by the wrecking steamer Rescue.

Tidewater Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MEHERRIN, VA., May 9.—The contractors on the Tidewater are working in full blast. The steam shovel is doing good duty, and much progress has been made during the past week. Three new shovels will be put to work here as soon as they can be gotten here, and the force will be gradually increased for the next two months.

Reward for Cable Cutters.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 9.—The Southern Bell Telephone Company has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of the person who cut the cable between this city and Richmond. The cable was cut in four places about Newport News Monday night, and the work is credited to the striking union linemen.

Valuable Box Missing.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREEN BAY, VA., May 9.—A representative of the Southern Railway was here yesterday searching the records of 1903 to locate a truss box shipped from some point in Texas to a party in Farmville, said to contain very valuable dry goods, which never reached its destination. No trace of it could be found here. It is reported that $500 will have to be paid for its recovery, and a careful search is being made.

Wedding Gifts Of Known Quality.

OUR reputation for selling THE BEST has stood the test of more than one hundred (100) years.

All Correspondence Given Careful Attention. Goods Sent on Approval. Express Prepaid.

Galt & Bro.,

Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers.

1107 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Washington, D. C.

What we know you would always say "Schlitz beer" when you order. If you could visit our brewery—as thousands have done—you would insist on the beer that is brewed here.

You would want a beer clean—as ours is. You would want it filtered and aged as we do it. You would want to know that every bottle is sterilized—that it is pure—as is every bottle of Schlitz.

MARSHALL SHOT AND INSTANTLY KILLED

No Credence Given to Assailant's Claim That It Was Accidental.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GLADESBORO, VA., May 9.—Mr. P. Marshall was shot and instantly killed by Powell Willis yesterday in the edge of Patrick county, about four miles south of here. It seems that the two men had been shooting at a mark with a pistol, and some disagreement arose over the possession of the pistol, when Marshall was shot through the body near the heart by Willis, and died in a few seconds. Willis claims it was an accident, but there is little or no credit given the claim. Willis is a tough character and many times has been arrested for lawlessness. Marshall leaves a wife and several little children in needy circumstances.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Great Crowd Assembled at Troutville to Attend Services.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TROUTVILLE, VA., May 9.—The new Baptist Church at this place was dedicated Sunday. This event drew together a large crowd of people. Many came from Roanoke city, some in private conveyances and some on the train. For the afternoon train the railroad agent sold 121 tickets to Roanoke. The new church could not begin to seat the crowd. An overflow service was held in the Masonic Odd-Fellows' Hall, with Rev. W. D. Kink, pastor of Bethany Methodist Church, as the preacher. Yet another service would have been held in the school-house but for lack of a preacher. At 11 o'clock in the new church the dedication sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Willis E. Hatcher, of Richmond, Va. His text was Psalm xxvii: 4. At the close of the sermon Dr. Hatcher took a collection to pay the debt on the church. This was done and more. Over $400 was quickly raised and this covered the debt and left a balance for the future. The service was held in the new church, which was heartily and lovingly dedicated. A bountiful dinner was served on the beautiful lawn of the church for all the people—a great multitude.

Flowers for Jackson's Grave.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., May 9.—The Kirkwood-Gray Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, this afternoon expressed to the Mary Custis Lee Chapter at Lexington a large box of red and white roses to be placed on the tomb of Stonewall Jackson in that city. A committee from the Lexington Chapter met the train at Lexington to-night and received the flowers, and they will be placed on the tomb early in the morning.

Smallpox on Chincoteague.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHINCOTEAGUE, VA., May 9.—A case of smallpox broke out yesterday on the island, which created quite an excitement for awhile, the victim being Captain John Burton, of Chincoteague Street, near Mission Baptist Church. Every precautionary measure has been rigidly enforced. A strict quarantine of all parties connected in any way with the case has been put in force.

Closed Session With a Sumptuous Banquet—State Officers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 9.—The 81st annual convention, State Council, Knights of Columbus, closed their session in Alexandria with a sumptuous banquet in the Lyceum Hall last night. Dr. E. A. Gorman, of Alexandria, district deputy

DESPERATE NEGRO IN THE HANDS OF THE LAW

Confederate Veterans' Meeting in Buckingham County Next Monday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUCKINGHAM, VA., May 9.—The negro desperado, Joe Cobbs, has been landed in jail here by Sheriff Lewis Williams, after a hard chase. Cobbs, Sunday last, got into an scrap with Edgar Jones, and Jones got the best of the struggle, when Cobbs went to a neighbor's house, borrowed a shotgun and came back and opened fire, shooting Jones, his wife and wife's sister.

GOING FOR SHORT.

Police Board Will Hear Citizens in Vaulting Pole Case.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., May 9.—A called meeting of the Police Board will be held to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of hearing charges against Officer Short, who arrested the Washington and Lee student here Monday and sent him to the station in the patrol on the charge of breaking a trivial ordinance by carrying a vaulting pole on the sidewalk.

PICTURE OF LEE.

Presented by Grandson to Westmoreland County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WESTMORELAND, VA., May 9.—Captain Robert Lee, of Fairfax county, has written Commonwealth's Attorney C. C. Baker, of this place, that he will present to Westmoreland county a full length, life-size portrait of General Robert E. Lee. The picture will be shipped here at once, and will occupy a prominent place on the walls of the court room and warm welcome to the hearts of the county where this distinguished and beloved Confederate soldier was born.

Pneumonia Victims Are Recovering from the Disease.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA., May 9.—The Masons held a big pow wow here last night and many members from distant parts of the county attended. Two new members joined and the application for membership of others was handed in. This lodge has now about fifty members and they are very enthusiastic. The plan for building the new temple was discussed, but positive action was deferred to give the committee further time to perfect their plans.

Letter to Chas. Milhiser.

Richmond, Va.

Dear Sir: You are a maker; so are we. You know what you make, you know all about it. We know our paint as you know your goods. We know what it is, how it acts, what it does, how it lives, and how long—the conditions being favorable or unfavorable. It is fair that we take the risk of it every way; but we ought not to risk any use or abuse of it.

Knights of Columbus.

Closed Session With a Sumptuous Banquet—State Officers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 9.—The 81st annual convention, State Council, Knights of Columbus, closed their session in Alexandria with a sumptuous banquet in the Lyceum Hall last night. Dr. E. A. Gorman, of Alexandria, district deputy

FOREMAN BLOWN UP.

Loses a Hand by Premature Blast on Tidewater Railway.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., May 9.—Thomas Redd, of Rawles Mills, Va., foreman at Marshall's Camp, on the Tidewater Railway, was blown up by the premature explosion of a blast this afternoon while he was working on the line. He lost his right hand and the amputation of one hand necessary. His injuries are serious but not dangerous.

Clarksville Notes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CLARKSVILLE, VA., May 9.—Mrs. Dr. W. Townes Wimble was taken to the hospital in Danville Sunday, as she is threatened with fever. Tobacco sales here have been light for the last few weeks, though the season has been one of the best for years.

MASONIC MEETING.

Pneumonia Victims Are Recovering from the Disease.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA., May 9.—The Masons held a big pow wow here last night and many members from distant parts of the county attended. Two new members joined and the application for membership of others was handed in. This lodge has now about fifty members and they are very enthusiastic. The plan for building the new temple was discussed, but positive action was deferred to give the committee further time to perfect their plans.

Flowers for Jackson's Grave.